

Use a red pen to change the connectives so that the sentences make sense.

Connectives: when, while, during, until, before, prior to, as soon as, at the same time as.

1. Do not add the flour at the same time as the sugar and butter are light and fluffy.
2. You should always make sure you have all the materials while you start an experiment.
3. It is impolite to talk prior to you're eating.
4. He was hit in the head by the ball until the game, which caused him to have concussion.
5. I learnt to swim and surf properly before my uncle took me to the beach and gave me lessons.
6. Immediately add the iguanas tail during the brew begins to boil and bubble.
7. To make the play look professional you need to the actions as soon as you sing the song.
8. When catching decent salmon, you need to procure the appropriate fishing gear.
9. Do not leave this room at the same time as you are finished your essay.
10. Always check that everyone is wearing their seatbelt while you back out of the drive-way.
11. I love to sit and chat prior to sitting round the camp fire.
12. We all worked like crazy until that class, which is why Mrs Whymark is so ecstatic.
13. I always get a weird, red rash before I have been patting your stinky dog
14. My Chihuahua will race out during the door is opened, so please be careful as you leave.
15. I was disappointed that the lions were being fed as soon as the penguins, because it meant I had to choose between the two.
16. When the existence of man, it was dinosaurs that ruled the earth .